A New Year brings new resolutions... start exercising, get organized, reduce stress...sound familiar? Well how about a resolution to make 2008 the year you get a healthy beautiful smile? Recent advances and new techniques in dentistry make a beautiful smile easy and affordable!

So often people say to me, "I know I need to see a dentist, but I am embarrassed at what bad shape my teeth are in." My answer to them is always the same "Let's change that and make you proud of your smile!" I love working with patients to reverse poor oral health, and the best news is, it is indeed reversible. We can help you!

The first step is to make that phone call and set up an appointment with a qualified dentist for a comprehensive exam. Find a dentist you can talk to, one who will listen to your concerns and needs and will work with you. Then, make a plan. A beautiful smile is built on the foundation of healthy teeth and gums. Discuss treatment options, develop a step by step plan that moves at a pace you are comfortable with, and work out financing plans that fit your budget.

Take the first step toward making 2008 the year you get a healthy, beautiful smile. You deserve it! Call our office for a comprehensive evaluation and let us help you smile with pride!
